Today Mr. Sumeet Tamrakar discussed about the Magical Impact and Benefits of Time Management in both professional and personal life. If you are punctual and working as per your planned schedules then definitely you will become a successful individual. To manage the time properly first we have to prioritize our work and responsibilities and according to that give weightage of time to the activities. Always make a check list of all your tasks and engagements on daily basis so that you will get updates of work regularly. Always make plans in advance with relative flexibility so that if needed you can modify your plans. When it comes to select anyone from family and work then you should give priority first to family. Topic : Interview Skills

Today Mr. Harshit Chouksey discussed about Interview Skills in the present scenario. Now days as due to the world wide pandemic the industrial working is changed drastically so being a young professional looking for a job it is very necessary to get prepared for an interview in advance. Mr. Harshit explained very clearly the steps of Interview that always take interview as a process. In Interview there are three general steps: Before the interview, during the Interview and after the interview. First of all you do complete homework about the company where you are going for interview. Candidates have to be prepared with proper Dress code, necessary documents and proper body language. Always try to reach at least 30 minutes before of the interview and if in between this you stuck in any problem then must inform that you will reach little late. Mr. Harshit explained clearly that how to seat in an interview, how to answer, when to speak, when not to speak and how to be comfortable during the interview. At last he cleared the doubts of participants by giving answers to their questions.
