Department of Sociology & Education
Activity Report : 2022-23

Date : 07-02-2023

Activity : Food Fest

No. of Beneficiaries : 210

Department of Sociology in Collaboration with the Department of Education organized Food Fest to mark International Day of Family on 7th February 2023, in the College premises. Students from different streams of the college enthusiastically participated with their family members in the Food Fest. Food Stalls of Variety of taste and nutritional value were prepared and sold by the students. The mega event was inaugurated by Dr. Usha Kiran, Head, Department of Psychology, Girls D B College, Raipur.

The Food Fest Event encouraged and motivated the students to develop team spirit among them, as the students executed the event through a week-long discussion and meticulous planning with their teacher mentors and peer team. Their planning and execution also instilled within them a sense of responsibility towards their work which thereby groomed organizational skill of the students. It also inspired them to create a sense of self-respect and dignity of labour. The most interesting and notable part of the event was, the members of the family got chance to support and contribute their helping hand to their son/ daughter by their presence in their respective stalls to raise their earning to a profitable margin. The profit earned by the students developed a sense of confidence and self-reliance in them. The tedious effort of the students turned out to be a grand success and mega hit that reflected a sense of achievement and reflected ray of hope on their confident smiling faces. This event also taught them the concept of earn and live in their hardships or the creative and easy ways to earn profit thereby developing entrepreneurship skill in the students. Total of 20 Food Counters were displayed for the Food Fest Competition.
