book covers.

The administrator of the college, Father Dr. Ishi Kirpal, commended the initiative taken by the librarian Ritu Biswas and noted students to benefit from the Matthew effect in vocabulary through regular reading practice. He accentuated that books serve as mirrors and banners reflecting and shaping society and empowering individuals to envision and strive for a more equitable world.

Chief guest of the occasion principal Dr. M. Jayaraman highlighted the importance of books providing a wealth of ideas and insights that can help students to navigate the complexities of life.

He advocated that diving into a well-crafted book is not just about following a story or absorbing information; it is an active exercise in critical analysis. The convener of the event

Ritu Biswas articulated her concern regarding overlooking the profound impact of books on one's life in today's fast-paced digital age.

She exhorted the students to explore within the pages for a treasure trove of wisdom, knowledge, and personal growth waiting to be unravelled. Winners of various contests were felicitated during the prize distribution ceremony.
